Cemetery before clean-up job

Simleu, Romania | Committee being formed

After many complaints from visitors who were disturbed during their visit to the cemetery, efforts are now being put in to set up a Committee to solve the problems and make necessary arrangements

Committee Chairmen visit cemeteries:

Ocna Mures, Romania

R' Chaim Yechezkel Hershkwowitz, son of Harav R' Mordche ז"ל - Chairman, visited the cemetery to pray at the ancestors' gravesites and mentioned the names of their descendants and lit candles in their stead. He expressed his deep appreciation for the immaculately clean cemetery, surrounded by a proper gate with its 300 tombstones properly erected. A sponsorship opportunity is available to set up a regular Maintenance; please contact R' Chaim Yechezkel

Slavkovce, Slovakia

As per the will of his grandfather R' Mechele of Natanya ז"ל, Harav R' Gedalia Mechlowitz son of the Admo"r of Zlotchev-Natanya, undertook with great self-sacrifice to rescue the cemetery of Slavkovce. He gathered the various descendants and traveled to the cemetery to oversee the restoration work. From being totally abandoned and neglected, the cemetery that used to look like a forest, underwent a huge transformation; it was beautifully cleaned, had a proper gate constructed, its tombstones erected, and there is a pathway leading to the cemetery. With the help of Hashem, the tombstones of 2 of his ancestors were uncovered in the nearby town of Bitkowitz; one of them is of R' Mayer Segal (yahrtzeit on 11 Cheshvan) and R' Gedalia arrived there on the day of the yahrtzeit, the 2nd is of an esteemed grandfather R' Avrohm whose yahrtzeit was in these 3 days.

We share in the pain of the esteemed Admo"rim and Rabbonim and Dayanim Shlit"a and especially Hagaon the Admo"r of Beresdovtzy, Committee Rav Gherla as they mourn the loss of their dear mother, the Szaszregen Rebbetzin ע"ה, descendant of the Ziditchoiv, Ropshitz, Apta, Belz dynasties.

May they be comforted among the mourners of Yerushalayim and may they know of no more pain and may they be blessed with a life of שמחה ונחת
